PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SEPTEMBER 3, 2009 – NEW BLOG, EVERY DAY VALUE LAUNCHES: PROVIDING FINANCIAL GUIDANCE FOR THE RESTAURANT INDUSTRY

Every Day Value is a new blog geared towards providing the restaurant industry with restaurant operations and accounting information. The site is hosted at www.restaurantaccountingblog.com and will provide restaurant owners with education, ideas, and tips on how to handle financial challenges as well as provide a forum for industry stories.

The site is managed by Vine Solutions, Inc., who provides premier accounting and financial consulting services for high volume independent and multi-unit restaurants. Vine Solutions wanted to provide this blog as a response to the current economic climate. Restaurants seem to be in need, now more than ever, of sound financial guidance as they navigate through the economic crisis.

John Priest, VP of Operations for Vine Solutions stated that, “this blog will give Vine Solutions a chance to share key financial tips and operational information with all restaurateurs and foodies. Running a successful restaurant is highly dependant on being able to competently understand how to manage the financial side of your business.”

Vine Solutions, Inc. was incorporated in 1996 and has offices in Corte Madera and Santa Monica, California. Vine Solutions, Inc., provides accounting and financial advisory services to a variety of high volume independent restaurants and regional chains.
